

Warning Signs to Determine Need for a Driver Evaluation

As drivers get older, changes in their vision, reaction time, and health can affect their ability to drive safely. If you're worried about your or your loved one's driving, here are some signs to be aware of and may indicate the need for a driver evaluation.

- 01 I get lost while driving
- 02 My friends or family are worried about my driving
- 03 I have difficulty finding and reading signs in time to respond to them
- 04 I have had some “near” misses lately
- 05 Busy intersections bother me
- 06 The glare from oncoming headlights bother me
- 07 After driving, I feel tired
- 08 When driving, I feel tired
- 09 Left hand turns make me nervous
- 10 I get honked at often
- 11 Cars often appear out of nowhere
- 12 Other drivers drive too fast

GET

13

I often feel nervous, fearful or uncomfortable when driving

14

I have difficulty turning the steering wheel

15

My medication makes me drowsy

16

Other drivers drive too fast

17

I have difficulty pushing down on the pedals

18

I have difficulty turning over my shoulder when I back up

19

I have been pulled over by police for my driving

20

People no longer want to drive with me

21

I have difficulty backing up

22

I have caused car crashes this year

23

I am too cautious while driving

24

I forget to use my turn signals or mirrors sometimes

25

I forget to check for uncoming traffic sometimes

26

I have difficulty parking

EVALUATED

NOW

